Brizo® Reveals Its New Allaria™ Bath Collection, a Work of Rare Alchemy

The latest bath suite embraces grandeur in irresistible simplicity and entrancing contours, forming an enthralling collection

INDIANAPOLIS (May 4, 2022) – The Allaria Bath Collection by Brizo®, drawn from the word alluring, incorporates unparalleled craftsmanship while capturing the innate beauty of minimalism – simple forms and inviting curves transform into a work of art. The newly launched collection embodies soft modernism by combining curved geometric shapes with striking split finishes. Available in both Square and Arc configurations, the ribbon spout puts a captivating twist on streamlined simplicity and can be paired with Knob, Lever, or Twist Lever Handles.

Adding striking contrast, Allaria debuts three irresistible split finishes including Brilliance® Black Onyx/Matte Black, Polished Chrome/Clear and Brilliance® Luxe Gold®/Clear to bring further distinction.

“In the Allaria Bath Collection, streamlined modernism takes on an alluring twist,” stated Maris Borris, Brizo Lead Designer. “Craftsmanship was top of mind as we blended lines with curves and created split finishes, including our new clear handles. With every detail and combination, the statement-making Allaria Collection is meant to inspire industry professionals to create elevated spaces.”
